PROPOSALS

For PRINTING the

Ancient and Present STATE

O F

SCOTLAND.

I. THIS Work will consist of Two Volumes; the First Volume will contain about One Hundred and Twenty Sheets of Description, or Print. The Second Volume will contain One Hundred and Twenty Five Sheets of Sculpture, only.

II. Both the Volumes are to be Printed on the same Paper, and the Description with the same Character as this is.

III. The Author, if he meets with suitable Encouragement, doubts not but to have both the Volumes ready for the Press, in about Six Month's Time.

IV. And by Reason this Work treats of such different Subjects, he resolves nothing shall be Published, before it be approved by such as shall be appointed to examine the same.

V. The Author designs to Print but Two Hundred Copies in English, and to have his Work Translated into Latin by a fit Person, that the same may be Published as well abroad as at Home.

VI. Any Noblemen, or Gentlemen, who are desirous to have their Houses and Genealogies Inserted in this Work, may be pleased to advertise the Author of it before the First of June next.

VII. If the Magistrates of any Town, or Borough, are desirous to have their Towns, which are not yet Engraven, added to this Work; or the Arms of their Town, with their own Arms Engraven in the said Prospects; they may also be pleased to give the Author timely Notice thereof.
